

New London Architecture (NLA) member survey results – ‘Planning for the future’ consultation

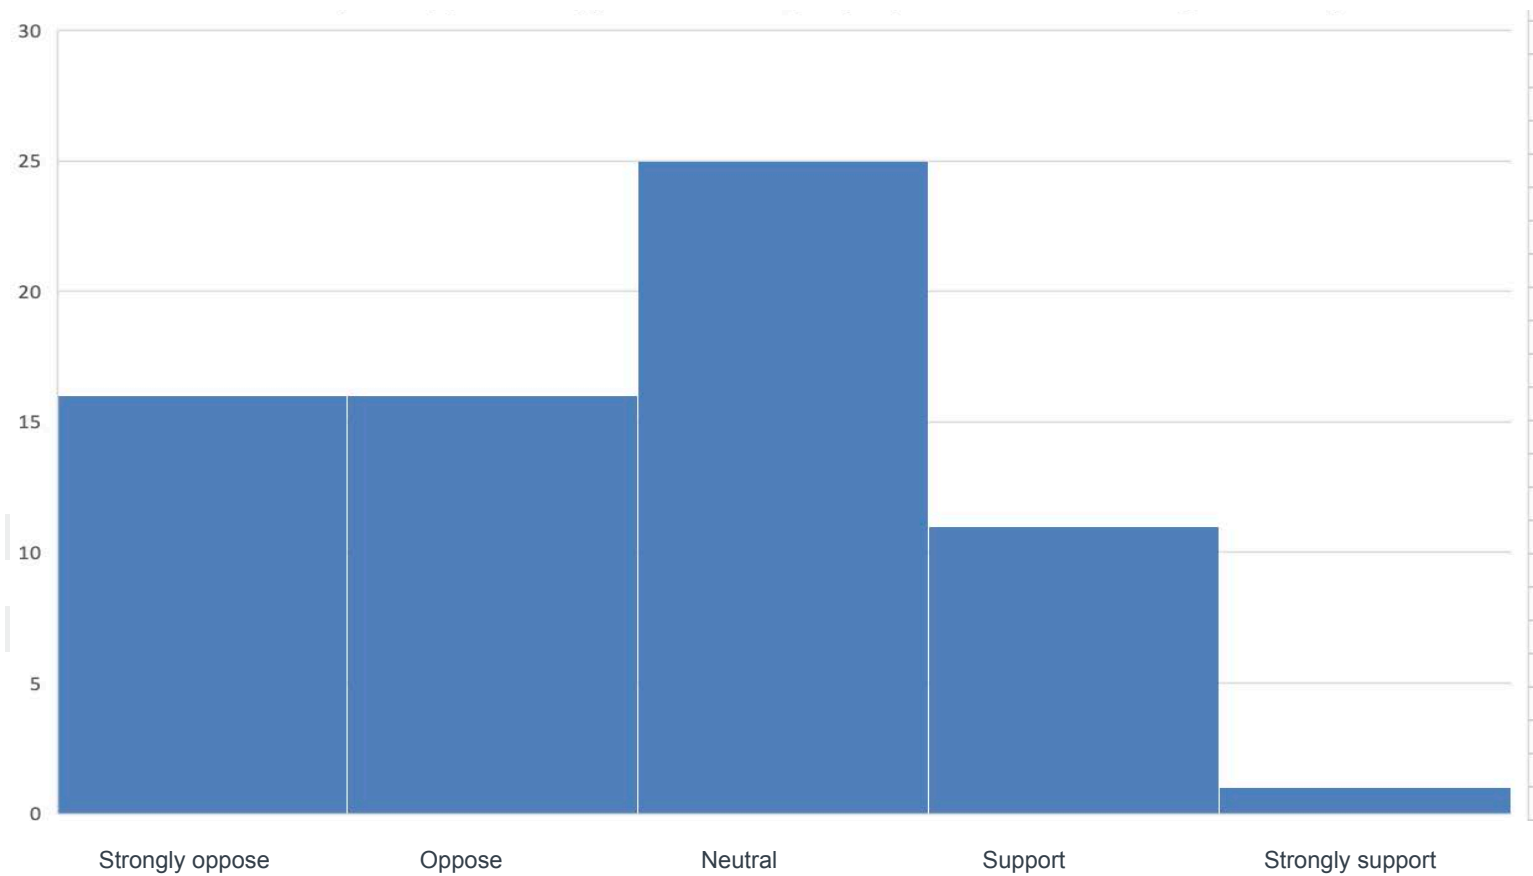

In September 2020, NLA conducted a survey of its membership to understand their views on the implications of the government’s proposed planning reforms for Greater London. The survey received detailed written responses from 69 organisations across the NLA membership, across architecture, development, planning, consultancy, local authorities, BIDS and charities. These were reviewed by the NLA Expert Panel on Planning and informed NLA’s official consultation response. Here you can see a summary of responses to our key questions.
