

DISSECTING THE LONDON PLAN

Wednesday 26 February, 09:00-13:00

NLA, The Building Centre, 26 Store Street, London WC1E 7BT

PROGRAMME SUPPORTER

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

The Mayor's draft new London Plan, which looks ahead to 2041, was published for public consultation in December 2017. The consultation period ended in March 2018, with the Mayor publishing "minor suggested changes" to the draft London Plan in August 2018. Following the examination hearing sessions, a panel of Inspectors appointed by the Secretary of State issued a report and recommendations to the Mayor in October 2019, after which an Intend to Publish plan was issued on December 2019.

Before the launch of the new London Plan, this NLA half-day conference discusses key policy sections with leading experts across different sectors, who will present what practitioners need to know for their future practice.

BIOGRAPHIES

Artur Carulla

Partner, Allies and Morrison

Artur is a Partner at Allies and Morrison, where he leads the strategic direction of projects across the entire range of the practice's work, with a focus on large urban regeneration masterplans. Artur has led the expansion of Allies and Morrison's studios and a residential tower in its vicinity, projects where the practice acted both as an architect and developer. Prior to joining Allies and Morrison, Artur gained professional experience in New York, following his studies in The Architectural Association in London and the Polytechnic University of Catalonia (ETSAB) in Barcelona, where he grew up. @alliesmorrison

Ben Derbyshire

Chair, HTA Design

Ben is Chair of HTA Design LLP, a design consultancy to the home building industry, practicing 'creative collaboration' in a range of professional and other disciplines. He has built up broad-ranging expertise through involvement in much of HTA's work in regeneration, masterplanning, housing and mixed-use design. Ben has worked on a many complex large-scale schemes undertaken by the practice over the years. As well as acting as HTA's Chair, Ben is responsible for the practice's internal Design Review process and leads the Marketing effort. @HTADesignLLP @ben_derbyshire

Peter Eversden

Chairman, London Forum of Amenity and Civic Societies

London Forum of Amenity and Civic Societies is a charity established by the Civic Trust in 1988. It networks, updates and represents over 100 community groups. Peter Eversden MBE has been a trustee since 1996 and Chairman since 2001. He and colleagues have participated in each London Plan since 2002. @London_Forum

Shamit Gaiger

Director, Strategic Advisory, AECOM

Shamit leads AECOM's Strategic Advisory in Transport and is a Non-Executive Director at the Department for Transport's Passenger Services, a member of the Franchising Advisory Panel to Secretary of State, and a Trustee for Campaign for Better Transport. She was recently asked to join as a Board member to Women in Rail. Shamit has over 20 years' experience in developing national and sectoral policies and strategies for the UK in areas such as innovation, technology, sustainability, risk sharing, productivity, decision taking, skills and leadership. Most recently, she led the negotiations on the Rail Sector Deal on behalf of HM Government, during which she was personally asked to take specific industry roles and conduct reviews of industry policy. Shamit has won various international awards and she was recently named by Rail Magazine as one of the most influential women in rail. @aecomtransport @shamitgaiger

Lisa Fairmaner

Head of the London Plan and Growth Strategies, Greater London Authority

Lisa recently took over as Head of the London Plan and Growth Strategies at the GLA. Her previous roles include Head of Planning at the Royal Borough of Kingston, Head of Strategic Planning at Westminster City Council, and policy/development management roles at Newham and Southwark Councils and in New Zealand. @LDN_gov

Peter Murray

Curator-in-Chief, New London Architecture

Peter trained as an architect but has spent much of his career writing about and commenting on architecture rather than practising it. He was editor of Building Design and RIBA Journal before starting Blueprint Magazine in 1983. He is President of Wordsearch the global communications and design consultancy. He is founder of the London Festival of Architecture and is author of various architectural books including "The saga of Sydney Opera House" and "A passion to build". He is a Past Master of The Architects' Company, a visiting professor at IE University in Madrid, Chairman of The London Society and a keen cyclist. @nlalondon @pgsmurray

Clare Richards

Founding Director, ft'work

Clare is an architect and award-winning documentary filmmaker, she founded ft'work in 2016 to promote thriving communities and ensure that clear social principles underpin development. A not for profit, ft'work collaborates at local level to support projects and initiate ideas whilst, at national level, working to encourage best practice and debate policy change.

@ftwork_org

Sarah Wardle

Associate Director, BECG

Sarah has a wealth of experience in developing stakeholder engagement and public affairs strategies across London and the South East. Sarah has worked for major housebuilders such as Redrow and Taylor Wimpey, housing associations ranging from One Housing to Home Group, hotel operators and large build to rent developers, Greystar and Essential Living. Sarah is also leading the consultation for the alternative terminal proposal at Heathrow Airport – the UK's first competitive Development Consent Order project. Beyond BECG, Sarah is a Councillor in the London Borough of Barnet and Vice-Chair of the Housing and Growth Committee.

@becgUK

Liz Smith

Regional Partner & Head of Architecture, Purcell

As Partner and Head of Architecture at Purcell, Liz's passion lies in progressive conservation, and she approaches historic buildings with new and ground-breaking design concepts. At the core of building conservation, Liz believes designs can be more creative within the specific constraints and rich context of historic environments and she has undertaken remarkable projects across London including the National Maritime Museum, Kew Palace and St Paul's Cathedral. Liz features as the Conservation Architect in More 4's TV series Phil Spencer's Stately Homes.

@PurcellUK

@LizS_Purcell

Dima Zogheib

Associate, Arup

Dima is a chartered landscape designer and urbanist with 14 years' experience in landscape planning and resilience. She works on designing complex and large-scale landscapes, smaller-scale community initiatives and planning for resilience in cities globally. Her emphasis is on the role of landscape and green infrastructure in creating resilient places, in particular designing cities to leverage water. Dima leads many strategic plans and guidelines to address socio-economic and environmental challenges, and mediate community needs with ecosystem health and biodiversity protection.

@ArupGroup

@DimaZogheib

Natalie Thomson

Director, Head of Strategy, Buckley Gray Yeoman

Natalie has led a diverse range of projects in London. In 2018 she completed Eccleston Yards, a new public space and creative hub in Victoria, whilst in 2016 she led the major renovation of St Vincent's Centre in Victoria: a series of distinguished Victorian buildings which house UK's largest homelessness charity, The Passage. Frequently leading residential and workplace projects within Westminster, Natalie oversaw the refurbishment of Yalding House on behalf of British Land in 2015 and is currently leading two schemes for The Pollen Estate. Natalie contributes to The Architectural Review's Women in Architecture campaign, of which Buckley Gray Yeoman is a Partner.

@bgyarchitects

Paul Turpin

Sector Lead, IBI Group

Paul's core expertise is in education and complex educationally led urban developments including 399-RNR in the Old Kent Road and Borough Academy in the Former Southwark Fire Station. He is a registered RIBA Client Advisor, and actively supports education providers across the age ranges, including STEM Ambassador for Kent and ICC member at the University of West London.
